California Highway Patrol Cadets Give Back to the Community

Nearly 70 cadets from the California Highway Patrol (CHP) Academy will donate their time and hard work to two local non-profit organizations on Saturday. Recipients of the cadets' good will are the Sacramento Children's Home and Courage to Be You, Inc. located in Placer County.

The CHP Academy's 27-week instructional program includes a community project as part of the training curriculum. The community project helps to reinforce to the cadets the CHP's mission of providing safety, service and security to the people of California as well as contributing in a positive way to the community in which they serve. Due to its large size, the class is split into two groups.

WHO: 50 CHP Cadets

WHEN: Saturday, March 19, 2011 from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m.

WHERE: 2750 Sutterville Rd., Sacramento 95820

VISUALS: CHP cadets will be painting, landscaping, as well as general clean-up and maintenance throughout the grounds

The remainder of the cadet class will volunteer at the "Courage to Be You, Inc." site. Cadets will paint interiors, make fence repairs and other outside work.
